

TAROT 365 - SYMBOLISM, PART I

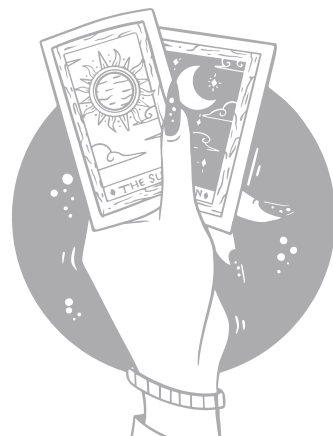

TAROT SYMBOLS

"A"

- Acorn: life, fertility and regeneration
- Airship: flying, 'birds' eye view' needed
- Altar: a sacred place
- Amethyst: healing
- Angels: divine messengers
- Angel Wings: protection, affection, hope and happiness
- Ankh: life in balance
- Apple: love, joy or knowledge
- Arch: new beginnings
- Arm band: belonging, tribe
- Armor: protection, strength
- Axe blades: swift but balanced justice

"B"

- Balcony: an elevated position, "rise above it all"
- Banner (Flag): transformation
- Baton: spiritual authority or the development of ideas
- Battle: conflict or struggle
- Bed: a retreat or a safe place
- Bee: personal industry or hard work
- Begging Bowl: needing help in some way
- Bench: the need to study the details
- Bicycle: progress
- Bird: rising above the norm, change of perspective
- Bird of Paradise: the appreciation of beauty
- Black Bird: metaphorical death, endings
- Blindfold: inability to see things clearly
- Blueprints: the necessity of studying the details
- Boat (Ship): moving away from past events
- Braids: spiritual strength and health
- Brick Wall: a self-imposed barrier, or mental block
- Bridge: dwelling on the past; moving on to the next phase of life
- Broken Glass: something beyond repair
- Buckle (Silver): loyalty and trustworthiness
- Bull: power and stability
- Butterfly: transformation

TAROT 365 - SYMBOLISM, PART I

"C"

Caduceus: balance, harmony, renewal and transformation

Candelabra: illuminating the way before you

Castle: goals and achievements

Cat: spiritual ability

Catacombs: your deepest thoughts

Centaur: unity of mind and body; balance of same needed

Chains: restraint or restriction

Cherubs: spiritual innocence; naivete

Child/Children: innocence; memories; living in the past

City/Village: protection, harmony and teamwork

Cliff Edge: possible new opportunities; embarking on a new path, either exciting or potential pitfalls

Clouds: transition (note color)

Cobweb: mystery, strength and growth

Coconuts: self-protection and self-projection

Coral: fertility, rebirth

Corn: spiritual strength and health

Crab: perseverance and tenacity

Crossed Keys: opening of new doors

Crown: authority and power

Crutch: physical and spiritual support

Crystal Ball or Glass Globe: enlightenment

"D"

Dark Skies: potential troubles

Devil: materialism; a need to look at the wealth within

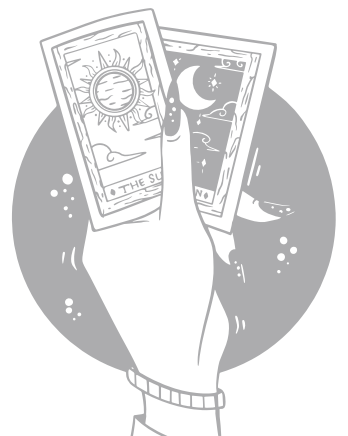

Dog / Dogs: loyalty or devotion

Dolphin: friends, happiness and amusement; playfulness

Door (Portal): Opening to a new path in life

Dove: peace, purity and love

Dragon: wisdom, strength and courage

TAROT 365 - SYMBOLISM, PART I

"E"

Eagle: a connection to spiritual powers, Spirit Guides and teachers

Earth (The Planet): nature (i.e., Mother Earth), fertility and life

"F"

Fairy: paranormal powers and imagination

Falling Man: a fall from grace

Fan: stepping back and assessment the situation

Feathers: spiritual evolution

Female Symbol: femininity

Ferryman: transition

Fire (Flames): transformation

Fish: intuition and creativity

Flag (Banner): see "banner"

Flagstones: a solid base, or foundations

Fleur-de-lis: adaptability, flexibility

Flowers: new life and regeneration

Fruit: good health and love

Fur: affluence, status and luxury

"G"

Gauntlets (Gloves): a challenge

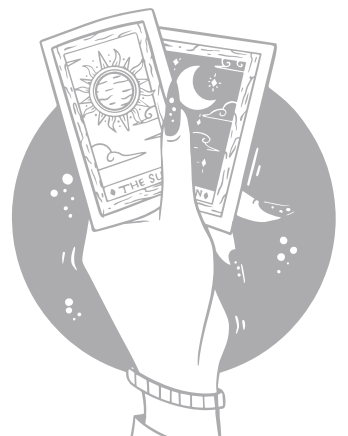

Ghostly Hands: troubling thoughts

Globe: achievement

Goblet / Chalice: family and tradition

Gold Chain of Office: position and authority

Grapes (Grapevines): bounty and abundance

TAROT 365 - SYMBOLISM, PART I

"H"

Hammer: getting a job done; "hammering things out"

Hand: transmission or give and take

Hawks: freedom and growth

Heart: love, joy and affection

Hedgehog: rebirth

Helmet: protection

Hills: obstacles

Hoe: resourcefulness; using the resources at hand

Hood: protection

Horns: physical prowess; needing a fighting spirit; meeting a challenge head on

Horse: strength and freedom

Hourglass: the passage of time

House (Cottage): safety and security

"I, J AND K"

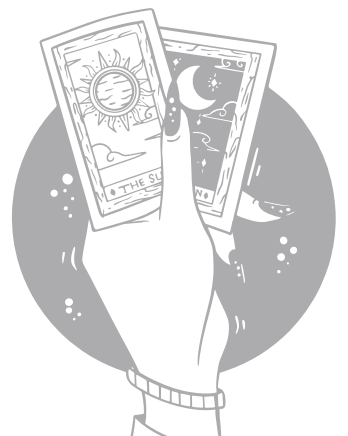

Ice: difficult territory; a need to "cool off"

Infinity Symbol: endless possibilities

Jewellery: financial security

Key: unlocking potential

Kite: aspirations

TAROT 365 - SYMBOLISM, PART I

"L"

Ladybird (Ladybug): good fortune
Lamp or Lantern: finding your way
Laurel Wreath: achievement
Leopard: strength
Library: knowledge; a period of study; gathering knowledge
Lightning: a destructive force
Lilies: purity, love
Lion: courage and strength
Lizard: renewal and rebirth
Lobster: hidden psychic ability

"M"

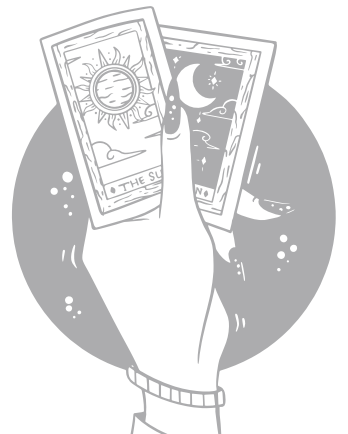

Magpie: balance in life
Manta Rays: grace and flow
Moat: protection; suggesting vulnerability
Moon: cycles; a spiritual person
Mountains: challenges
Mouse: scrutiny

"N, O AND P"

Nautilus Shells: renewal; a period of expansion
Nuts: toughness

Octopus: flexibility
Orrery (model of the solar system): personal viewpoint
Owl: wisdom, or a need to "wise up"

Paddle: independence; "paddle your own canoe"
Path (Road): life choices
Pearls: Wisdom
Pentacle: the five senses
Pillar: stability; two pillars signify balance, diplomacy
Pitcher: what lies within
Plowed Fields: care and planning
Pomegranate: femininity
Pool: a fresh start
Pregnancy: personal growth; a new idea, "your baby"

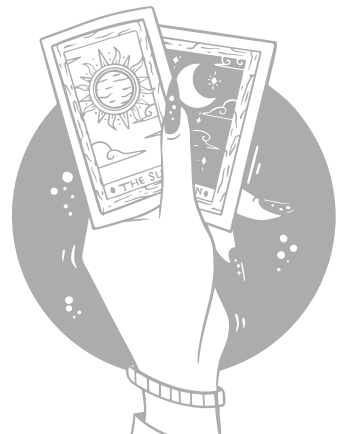

TAROT 365 - SYMBOLISM, PART I

"R"

Rabbit: being grounded
Rain: renewal and regeneration
Rainbow: success and hope
Ram: determination
Red Sky: trouble ahead
Reeds: versatility
Ribbons: fragility
River: obstacles
Rock: dependability
Ropes (Restraints): restriction
Roses: balance
Ruff (Collar): stiffness of attitude

"S"

Scorpion: potential threats
Scroll: learning
Sea (Ocean): an unsettled time
Sea Horses: grounding
Shells: protection
Shelves: storing knowledge
Shield: protection
Skeleton, or Skull: transition
Snail: steady progress
Snake: transformation
Snow (Snowflakes): a fresh start
Soldiers: structure; a need for order and discipline
Sphinx: mystery
Spider: resilience
Stag: quiet strength
Stained Glass: your outlook
Stairway: a new path or goal
Star (Stars): guidance
Sun: life and rebirth
Sunflower: positivity
Sunrise: a new beginning
Sunset: an ending
Swan: loyalty
Sword: defending oneself

TAROT 365 - SYMBOLISM, PART I

"T"

Tassels: achievement

Teardrops: sorrows

Tents (Marquees): refuge

Throne: stability

Tomb: freeing yourself

Tools: reshaping your life

Tornado: a loss of control

Tower: sanctuary

Treasure Box: secrets

Trees: growth

Triangle: strength

Trumpet (Horn): announcement

"V, W, Y AND Z"

Veil: mysticism

Wall: barriers

Water: cleansing

Waterfall: letting go

Wheat: abundance

Wheel: cycles

Window: a new outlook

Wings: freedom

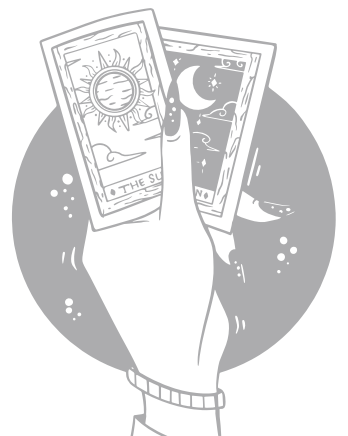

Wolf: loyalty

Workbench: creativity

Yellow Flowers: friendship

Yin Yang: balance

Zodiac Circle: our circle of friends

TAROT 365 - SYMBOLISM, PART I

COLOR SYMBOLISM

Black	Protection, groundedness, darkness or missing elements, illness, negativity, root chakra
Red	Groundedness, safety, security, passion, anger, pleasure, primal urges, vibrancy, radiance, root chakra
Pink	Love, femininity, compassion, forgiveness, heart chakra
Orange	Harmony, joy, creative ideas, contentment, intelligence, clarity, optimism, sacral chakra
Brown	Stability, groundedness, tangibility, practicality, nurture, solidity, neutrality, comfort, earthiness, muddiness or lack of boundaries, sacral chakra
Yellow	Opportunity, Intellect, positivity, protection, clarity, spontaneity, enthusiasm, solar plexus chakra
Gold	Mastery, divinity, spiritual leadership, crown chakra or above
Green	Healing, youth, sentimentality, nature, adventure, growth, love, harmony, balance, envy, bitterness, heart chakra
Blue	Communication, peace, open spaces, freedom, imagination, expansiveness, inspiration, self-expression, trust, sadness, judgment and criticism, throat chakra
Purple	Intuition, psychic ability, spirituality, reason, critical thinking, third eye chakra
White	Connection to the Divine, higher self, newness, inexperience, birth, crown chakra
Gray	uncertainty, neutrality, mystery, intensity, austerity; (silver - Emotion, sensitivity, empathy, crown chakra)

